

Friends & family,

I have very exciting news to share with you. I recently fell in love with an organization called Girls on the Run, so have signed up to complete the San Jose Rock N Roll Half Marathon on Oct. 3, 2010, while raising $1,300.00 for Girls on the Run of the Bay Area!

To learn more about Girls on the Run and my training and fundraising efforts, please visit my fundraising page at <http://www.firstgiving.com/name>. If you like what you see and are able to make a donation (of any size) I encourage your financial support.

You can donate online with a credit card or if the internet scares you, you can contact me directly to figure out another means to make your donation. I can guarantee you that all donations are secure and sent directly to Girls on the Run of the Bay Area by Firstgiving, who will email you a printable record of your donation.

In addition, if you would please send my page on to anyone who might like to donate!

Thank you in advance for your support!
